

Seven Senators, 25 Representatives in 111th Congress' "Hall of Fame"

By Shirl McArthur

CongressWatch

With an eye to this fall's rapidly approaching elections, the Washington Report is pleased to present its scorecard for members of the 111th Congress (2009-2010). This Congress saw several major efforts by the American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC) to pressure members of Congress to sign on to letters and other measures of interest to Israel, especially after President Barack Obama had the temerity to publicly criticize Israel on a couple of occasions.

For the House, five positive and five negative issues were chosen. Three of the latter were AIPAC-drafted letters, and most representatives apparently felt it wasn't worth it to resist AIPAC's hardball tactics. Still, 25 representatives registered either in all five positive columns with no more than one negative mark, or in four positive columns with no negative marks, and they are listed in the "Hall of Fame." The 38 representatives who registered in all five negative columns with no positive marks are listed in the "Hall of Shame."

For the Senate, four positive and four negative issues were chosen. Because it was difficult finding positive issues, two of the four positive columns recognize those senators who did not sign AIPAC's letters. Seven senators registered in at least three positive columns with no more than one negative mark, and they are shown in the "Hall of Fame." The 15 senators who registered in three negative columns with no positive marks, or in all four negative columns with no more than one positive

The House and Senate issues are enumerated below:

HOUSE: The Positives

1. Peace Process. In June 2009, 86 representatives, led by Reps. Charles Boustany (R-LA) and Steve Cohen (D-TN), signed a letter to Obama applauding his intention to provide strong U.S. leadership to resolve the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. And in May 2010, 61 representatives, led by Reps. Bill Delahunt

(D-MA) and Ron Kind (D-WI), wrote to Obama urging him to continue his efforts to move the parties toward a two-state solution. Also, 106 representatives co-sponsored H.Res. 130 supporting the appointment of George Mitchell as a special envoy for Middle East peace. Signers of the letters and the resolution's co-sponsors are recognized in Column 1.

2. Gaza Assault. After Israel's December 2008-January 2009 assault on Gaza, the House passed H.Res. 34 supporting Israel and placing exclusive blame for the crisis on Hamas. Five representatives voted "no," however, and 22 abstained, and they are recognized in Column 2.

3. Gaza Humanitarian. The same day that H.Res. 34 was passed, Reps. Lois Capps (D-CA) and John Olver (D-MA) led the sending of letters to then-President George W. Bush and incoming Secretary of State Hillary Clinton urging that the U.S. work to alleviate the humanitarian situation in Gaza. Also, in December 2009, 33 representatives, led by Reps. Jim Moran (D-VA), and Bob Inglis (R-SC), wrote to Clinton expressing concern about Israel's travel ban between the West Bank and Gaza. And in January 2010, 54 representatives, led by Reps. Keith Ellison (D-MN) and Jim McDermott (D-WA), wrote to Obama expressing concern about the crisis in Gaza. Signers of these four letters are shown in Column 3.

4. Goldstone Report. After Judge Richard Goldstone issued his October 2009 report accusing Israel (and Hamas) of

"war crimes as well as possible crimes against humanity" during Israel's assault on Gaza, Israel's congressional defenders immediately passed H.Res. 867 calling the report "biased" and "unworthy of further consideration." The 58 representatives who voted against the resolution or abstained are recognized in Column 4.

5. Afghanistan. In March 2010, Rep. Dennis Kucinich's (D-OH) H.Con.Res. 248 directing the president "to remove the U.S. armed forces from Afghanistan" was brought to a vote. It was defeated by a vote of 65-356. The 65 voting yes, plus Rep. John Conyers (D-MI), who was absent but issued a statement supporting the resolution, are recognized in Column 5. Previously, Rep. Barbara Lee (D-CA) introduced H.R. 3699 prohibiting any increase in the number of troops in Afghanistan. And in April 2010 Rep. Jim McGovern (D-MA) introduced H.R. 5015 to require a plan for the expeditious redeployment of U.S. armed forces from Afghanistan. Co-sponsors of these two bills also are shown in Column 5.

HOUSE: The Negatives

6. Settlements. In May 2009, after Obama told Israeli Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu that he wanted a stop to all settlement building, Reps. Eric Cantor (R-VA) and Steny Hoyer (D-MD) sponsored an AIPAC-drafted so-called "Peace Principles" letter saying there should be no U.S. pressure on Israel. The letter was sent on May 28. Its 330 signers are shown in Column 6.

7. Jerusalem. After Israel publicly humiliated visiting Vice President Joseph Biden in March 2010 by announcing new apartments for Israeli colonists in East Jerusalem, the Obama administration strongly and publicly denounced that act. Again, AIPAC geared up its lobbying machinery, and Cantor and Hoyer again sponsored a March 26 letter to Clinton taking Israel's side in the dispute and urging that differences between the two countries be resolved in private rather than in public. The letter's 333 signers are shown in Column 7.

8. Flotilla Assault. After Israel's May 31, 2010 attack on the aid flotilla bringing humanitarian supplies to Gaza, and the consequent international denunciations of Israel, numerous Congress members immediately leapt to Israel's defense. A letter was sent to Obama on June 29, sponsored by Reps. Gary Peters (D-MI) and Ted Poe (R-TX) and signed by 338 representatives, who are identified in Column 8.

9. Iran Sanctions. More than a dozen measures imposing sanctions on Iran were introduced in the House, but the one that gained the most support and was the most far-reaching was H.R. 2194, which became law after being combined with the Senate's S. 2799. H.R. 2194 was passed by the House on Dec. 15, 2009 with 344 co-sponsors, who are named in Column 9.

10. UNRWA. Two measures were introduced attacking UNRWA. In January 2009 Rep. Steve Rothman (D-NJ) introduced H.Con.Res. 29, and in April 2010 Rep. Ileana Ros-Lehtinen (R-FL) introduced H.R. 5065, which would essentially gut UNRWA and transfer responsibility for Palestinian refugees to the U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees. Co-sponsors of these two measures are shown in Column 10.

SENATE: The Positives

A. Peace Process. Sen. Dianne Feinstein (D-CA) initiated a February 2009 letter to Clinton urging her to use her forthcoming visit to Israel and the West Bank "to underscore your personal commitment, and that of President Obama," to achieving Israeli-Palestinian peace. The letter's 32 signers are recognized in Column A.

B. Cluster Munitions. Feinstein also introduced S. 416, in February 2009, that would prohibit the use of cluster munitions unless they "do not result in more than 1 percent unexploded ordnance" and "will only be used against clearly defined military targets." The bill's 27 co-sponsors are shown in Column B.

C. Settlements. The Senate version of the AIPAC-drafted so-called "Peace Principles" letter, sent in May 2009 after Obama told Netanyahu that he wanted to see a stop to all settlements building, was sponsored by Sen. Chris Dodd (D-CT) and signed by 76 senators. Those NOT signing are recognized in Column C.

D. Jerusalem. The AIPAC-drafted Senate letter, following Israel's public humiliation of Biden in March '10 by announcing new apartments for Israeli colonists in East Jerusalem, urged that any disputes between the two countries be resolved in private. The letter, sponsored by Sens. Barbara Boxer (D-CA) and Johnny Isakson (R-GA), was signed by 76 senators. Again, those NOT signing are recognized in Column D.

SENATE: The Negatives

E. Gaza Assault. S. Res. 10, introduced by Sen. Harry Reid (D-NV) with 35 co-sponsors after Israel's December 2008-January 2009 assault on Gaza, was passed in January 2009. The co-sponsoring senators are named in Column E.

F. Flotilla Assault. The Senate letter to Obama defending "Israel's right to self defense," following Israel's May 31, 2010 attack on the Gaza aid flotilla, was sponsored by Sens. Reid and Mitch McConnell (R-KY) and signed by 87 senators, who are named in Column F.

G. Iran Sanctions. Dodd's S. 2799 was the Iran sanctions bill that was passed by the Senate and ultimately became the basis, with H.R. 2194, for the measure signed into law on July 1, 2010; however, it was passed by voice vote with no co-sponsors. Previously, the bill gaining the most support was S. 908, introduced in April 2009 by Sen. Evan Bayh (D-IN). Its 78 co-sponsors, plus Dodd, are shown in Column G.

H. Freeman Nomination. Congressional opposition was a major factor in Ambassador Chas Freeman's March 10, 2009 withdrawal of his nomination as chairman of the National Intelligence Council. Specifically, all seven Republican members of the Intelligence Committee wrote to National Intelligence Director Dennis Blair expressing their opposition, and Sen. Joe Lieberman (I-CT) expressed his concerns directly to Blair. These eight are named in Column H. □
